Naples, Sept. 1. The Marriage of the Prince of Scalea with the Princess of Tarfea Spinelli, was celebrated in this City with great Magnificence, as well as by the Vassals of their respective Fiefs in Calabria. A few Days ago the Prince Pandolfini came, here expressly from Sicily, to complain to the King against a pretended Injustice from M. Cavalcante, his Majesty's Advocate General, and Councillor to the Vice-Roy; but the King having considered this Step as irregular, ordered the Prince to repair to Sicily, where he should find his Directions to the Vice-Roy to enquire into the Affair. On the 23d Instant their Majesties went to view the Royal Palace at Caserta; they dined there, and in the Evening returned to Town. The Duke of Monteleone, jun. &c. Days service in the King's Life Guards, as a Supernumerary Cadet, has been promoted by his Majesty to a Commission of Exempt in the said Corps, with the Rank of Colonel.

Naples, Sept. 6. The Queen advances happily in her Pregnancy, and is as well as can be expected. The King went again last Week to Caserta, to give Orders concerning the Building of the new Palace. It is said that the Prince d'Ardore, heretofore Ambassador from our Court to that of France, will in a short Time have a considerable Employment conferred on him, and it is even said that it will be the Vice-Royalty of Sicily. By a Vessel lately arrived here from Messina, we are informed that a Galliot belonging to Barbary, having been driven by contrary Winds upon a Sand Bank, not far from Palermo, was cast away; and that 120 Men, of which the Crew consisted, having found Means to get on Shore, they were immediately attacked by the Fishermen, who made them all Slaves.

Rome, Sept. 1. It is expected that the Promotion of Cardinals will be published very soon, and the Pope, it is said, by the last French Courier, has caused Notice to be given to M. Durini, to take his Leave of that Court, on his Promotion to the Cardinal Dignity.

Florence,

Florence, Sept. 5. We are informed from Riccioli, that two strong Shocks of an Earthquake were felt there on the 27th of last Month; but that they had happily occasioned much more Fear than Mischief to the Inhabitants of that Place.

Florence, Sept. 7. By the last Letters from Vienna, the Regency received Notice, that Count Richécourt having finished the Affairs which had called him thither, had received the Emperor's Orders to return hither, and that he set out on the 26th of last Month, so that he is expected here in a few Days. That Minister, it is said, has obtained several Marks of the Emperor's Favour, having been declared President of all the Councils in Tuscany, namely, That of the Regency, as likewise those of War and of the Finances, with a Power to preside in all inferior Magistratures and Meetings of whatsoever kind. His Appointments have been increased to those which Prince Craon formerly had, with an Addition for the Maintenance of a Table, besides which the Emperor has made him a Present of 1000 Zechins, to defray the Expenses of his Journey, and given him a general Permission to repair to Vienna, whenever he may think proper, without waiting for farther Leave, or being obliged to give previous Notice of it. Last Week an Edict was published by the Regency, both here and at Leghorne, containing a Prohibition, under the severest Penalties, to Persons either Subjects of this State or Foreigners, to approach the Mole, Bazar, or any Fifth that may be a Prejudice to it, on any occasion of which, according to the said Edict, may be punished with Death. The same Edict also contains a Prohibition to all Captains of Vessels to fire their Cannon in the Mole. They write from Lombardy, that General Palavicini, the late Governor of Milan, has obtained Leave of the Emperor to retire from her Service, having fixed his Abode in Bologna. The Duke of Modena, on his Tour to Massa and Carrara, has suspended all the Works at the new Harbour of Lavena, and dismissed the French Engineers, and the Workmen who were employed there. His Highness, it is said, is to have an Interview in the Neighbourhood of Milan with Count Christiani, and some of the principal Ministers, concerning the Administration of that Government, of which his Highness is to take Possession the Beginning of the Year. The Hereditary Prince of Modena is preparing for a Journey to Vienna, from whence he will go to London, and other principal Courts.

Florence, Sept. 11. Count de Richécourt, President of our Council of the Regency, is returned here from Vienna.

Leghorne, Sept. 4. The Captain of an English Ship, which arrived here last Week from the Coast of Barbary, has advised, that the Corsairs of Algiers, in Hopes to indemnify themselves for the considerable Losses they have lately suffered, have put to Sea eight more Chebeks, which mount from 12 to 20 Pieces of Cannon, in order to cruise upon the Christian Vessels. We are likewise informed, that the contagious Distemper, which has for some Time discovered itself at Algiers, and at some of the neighbouring Places, continues daily to carry off a great Number of People.

Paris, Sept. 16. Madame the Dauphiness, and the Prince of whom she was lately delivered, continue in as good a State of Health as can be desired. The Abbe Branciforte, the Pope's Extraordinary Nuncio, had, on Tuesday last, a particular Audience of the King, at which he took Leave of his Majesty; and this Prelate is preparing to return immediately to Rome.

Berlin, Sept. 18. The King accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and attended by a great Number of General Officers, arrived Yesterday Morning in this Capital from Potsdam.

Potsdam, Sept. 22. Great Rejoycings were made here last Sunday on Account of the Birth of the young Prince. The Duchess of Parma proposes leaving this Court the 27th Instant, in order to return to Italy.

Hague, Sept. 23. We learn by the last Letters from Copenhagen, that the Marquis of Puerto Fuerte, who has resided for several Years at the Court of Denmark, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain, has received Orders to leave that Court immediately, and to repair to Stockholm, in the Character of Minister Plenipotentiary from his Catholic Majesty at the Court of Sweden.

Hague, Sept. 27. The States of this Province continue still their Deliberations. The Count de Rochefort, having been promoted to the Rank of Major, he took the usual Oath on that Occasion before the Council of State. We have just received Advice from Breda, a Village of South Holland, situate at a little Distance from Tergow, that a Fire broke out there last Night at a Dutch House, which burnt with so much Violence, that notwithstanding all the Efforts used to extinguish it, that House, and ten more that adjoined to it, were entirely consumed.
